The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XXth Year.] THURSDAY, May 10, 1764. [N°. 992.]

L O N D O N, February 11.

WE hear that the whole Crew of a Ship, lately arrived from Jamaica, have been poiſoned by a black Woman-Cook they had on board, who after ſhe had committed it, threw herſelf into the Sea, and was drowned. They are all dead, except the Captain and two Men, who are very bad.

Feb. 14. We hear that the Pumps of the Yacht, in which her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Brunſwick failed, were obliged to be kept going to the Time of her landing at Helvoetſluys.

Four new Ships, of 74 Guns each, are ordered to be laid on the Stocks at Breſt; and that they may be got ready for Sea, with the greater Expedition, an additional Number of Hands is ordered to be employed on them.

Two Millions of Livres, in Money and Bills of Exchange, are arrived at Genoa from Vienna, deſtined to diſcharge the Loan which was procured there for the Empreſs Queen, during the laſt War.

Feb. 16. The Houſe of Commons ſat till Seven o'Clock Yeſterday Morning. The Speaker was 20 Hours in the Chair, which was the longeſt Sitting, by three Hours, that is remembered to have happened. No Strangers were ſuffered to remain in the Houſe.

We can aſſure the Public, that Mr. Beardmore has given Notice of Trial, in the Action which he has brought againſt the King's Meſſengers, for breaking into his Houſe, and inſpecting his, and his Clients Books, Papers and Writings, and that the Trial will come on before the Right Hon. Lord Chief Juſtice PRATT, at the Adjournment of the Sittings, ſome Day next Week.

It is now ſaid that Nine Thouſand Seamen, and Marines, will be taken into the Service of the current Year.

It is ſaid an entire Stop is going to be put to the Exportation of Corn from theſe Kingdoms for Twelve Months; it having been computed, that the Loſs in this Article alone, through the exceſſive Moiſtneſs of the Seaſon, already exceeds 200,000 l.

The Utrecht Gazette, in an Article from Paris, ſays, We learn from Dublin, that Ireland is become, in regard to our Kingdom, and thoſe of Spain and Portugal, what Egypt formerly was to the Number of States ſituate along the Coaſts of the Mediterranean, and what Sicily is at preſent to Italy; for it exported Corn into thoſe three Kingdoms, in the Year 1763, to the Amount of 2,700,000 Livres, 120,000 l. Sterling.

Public Prayers are ordered throughout the Auſtrian Netherlands, to be offered up in all their Churches, to deprecate Heaven for a Ceſſation of the heavy Rains which they have had of late.

Feb. 18. The Houſe of Commons did not break up till between five and ſix o'Clock this Morning.

We hear that a Proclamation for a General Faſt will ſoon be iſſued out to implore the Almighty for a Ceſſation of the heavy Rains and Inundations.

It is impoſſible to deſcribe the deplorable Situation of the ...ns in Lincolnſhire; and this one Inſtance, among many that may be given, will give but a faint Idea of their wretched Condition: At Bourn, laſt Week, a Farmer who had a ...rm in Deeping Fen, ſold for Five Shillings only, a Stack of Hay of 140 Load, and a Stack of Oats which grew upon ...teen Acres of Land; ſo great is the Loſs in Cattle.

Feb. 21. The Royal Charlotte and Mary Yachts are fitting up at Deptford, in order to carry over his Majeſty to his German Dominions, which, it is ſaid, he will viſit ſome time in May next.

Two Spaniſh Men of War, arrived at Carthagena from Minorca, bring an Account, that while they were at Majorca there happened ſuch a violent Hurricane, that near all the Merchants Ships that were in the Port periſhed, many of whom were laden.

The Damage done at Oporto by Inundations and the exceſſive Rains, is computed to amount to 20,000 Moidores.

Some Letters from Paris ſay, that the King has declared he cannot now, nor hereafter, ſupport the Eaſt-India Company.

They write from Sileſia, that they are diligently recruiting the Troops in that Country; that they are repairing the Fortifications of Schweidnitz, and other Towns, buying Horſes for the Military Service, and filling the Magazines.

Feb. 23. At a Court of Common-Council at Guildhall, London, the 21ſt of February, 1764.

Reſolved, That the Thanks of this Court be preſented to Sir Robert Ladbroke, Knt. Sir Richard Glynn, Bart. William Beckford, Eſq; and the Hon. Thomas Harley, Eſq; the Repreſentatives of this City, for their zealous and united Endeavours to aſſert the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, by their laudable Attempt to obtain a ſeaſonable and parliamentary Declaration, "That a general Warrant for apprehending and ſeizing the Authors, Printers, and Publiſhers of a ſeditious Libel, together with their Papers, is not warranted by Law." And to expreſs to them our warmeſt Exhortations, that they ſteadily perſevere in their Duty to the Crown, and uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to ſecure the Houſes, Papers, and Perſons of the Subject from arbitrary and illegal Violations.

An infamous and ſeditious Libel having lately appeared in Print, intituled, "A Digeſt of the Rights and Prerogatives of the Imperial Crown of Great-Britain," the ſame is ordered to be burnt by the Common-Hangman on Saturday next before Weſtminſter-Hall Gate; and on Monday at the Royal Exchange; and the Sheriffs of London are to attend at the latter Place, to ſee the ſaid Orders put into Execution.

It is rumoured about Town, that a Scheme is on Foot for leaſing out all the waſte Lands of this Kingdom, belonging to the Crown; and that the ſame will ſoon be laid before an auguſt Aſſembly.

It is ſaid there is an Intention to propoſe a Bill for laying a general Stamp Duty throughout all our American Colonies; but it cannot be thought conſiſtent with the Genius and Spirit of our happy Conſtitution, that any Sett of Men whatever, either at Home or Abroad, ſhould be ſubject to be taxed, without Repreſentatives to aſſent or diſſent to ſuch a Tax.

We hear that an Affair will come upon the Carpet in a few Days, that will make a great Noiſe in the World.

It is now computed that the Demands of Woollen Drapery, and other coarſe Engliſh Manufactures in the Cloathing Way, from Newfoundland and the Northern Provinces, exceed that of any preceding Year, on Account of the enlarged Number of the Inhabitants ſince the Peace, by Two Hundred Thouſand Pounds.

As an Inſtance of the Great Induſtry of the French in their Newfoundland Fiſheries, we are informed, by Letters from thence, that 25,000 Quintals of Fiſh, caught in the American, or more properly the Engliſh Seas of Newfoundland, have been exported from France to the ſeveral Markets, in Spain only, ſince the firſt of July laſt.

We hear that to promote the Growth of Hemp in America, it is propoſed to ſolicit a Bounty of 8l. per Ton for the firſt three Years, 6l. the next three Years, 4l. the next three, and 2l. for three Years more, by which Time it is thought the Manufacture will be able to ſupport itſelf.

We hear that ſeveral Ships of War will ſhortly be put into Commiſſion for a Cruize.

Soon after the Deciſion of Mr. Wilkes's Affairs on Tueſday laſt at Weſtminſter, an Expreſs was diſpatched to that Gentleman at Paris.

Since the Verdicts of Yeſterday againſt Mr. Wilkes, the Wagers now run Twelve to One, that that Gentleman does not return to England within theſe four Years.

Feb. 13. By a Gentleman from Thorney we are informed, that notwithſtanding the greateſt Aſſiduity uſed in ſtrengthening and ſupporting the Bank from Guyhorn to Clow Croſs, it is greatly feared that it cannot be made to reſiſt the Impetuoſity of the Waters in Wiſbich and Thorney Fens much longer, in the loweſt Parts of which the Water is now at leaſt ſix Feet deep, and continues to riſe; ſhould the Wind blow ſtrong at N. W. it will raiſe the Water at leaſt two Feet higher againſt the ſaid Bank, which muſt inevitably beat it down. If this Bank ſhould blow up, it will lay more than 35000 Acres of Land ſix Feet under Water. The Repairs of the above Bank have already coſt upwards of 1000 l.

The Inundation cauſed by the Breach in the Bank between Cowbett and Handkerchief-hall, has laid all South Holland in the County of Lincoln, and Parts contiguous, containing at leaſt 200,000 Acres of Land, more than four Feet under Water; the Loſs ſuſtained thereby cannot be leſs than 150,000 l. ſhould the ſame become dry by Michaelmas next, which there is very little Probability of.

Feb. 20. They write from Paris, that the Seine has riſen by the late Rains, one and twenty Feet above its uſual heights, and has overflowed its Banks in ſeveral Parts.

The River Tiber has lately overflowed its Banks, and done incredible Damage to the adjacent Countries, by laying them under Water.

Extract of a Letter from Ilfracombe, Jan. 27.

"The Weather has been for theſe two Months more tempeſtuous than the oldeſt Man here can remember. I have been an Inhabitant in and near this Place almoſt ſixty Years, but cannot recollect any Gales of Wind to have been ſo great and variable as lately. Not leſs than thirty Sail have been loſt, and every Man periſhed, on this Coaſt, and four more have ſhared the ſame Fate on the Welſh Shore. Our Boats are daily towing in ſomething or other in Diſtreſs; and Yeſterday when the Weather cleared up, one of them fortunately fell in with his Majeſty's Sloop of War the Ranger, who four Days before had loſt, off Cape Cornwall, her Foremaſt, Bowſprit, Main Topmaſt, and one Man, and was otherways in ſuch Diſtreſs, as nothing but the wonderful Interpoſition of Providence could have ſaved either Ship or Lives; for according to their Accounts, they had been four Days and four Nights cloſe on certain Death, by being drove ſo near an ironbound Lee Shore, as to have nothing left for their Preſervation but the uncertain Dependence of Anchors and Cables, two of which they loſt; and had they not providentially met with one of our Boats, which towed her in, ſhe, in all human Probability, muſt, in the violent Storm that blew laſt Night, have parted from her only one, and before Morning been no more; but Thanks be to God, we have the great Pleaſure of ſeeing her ſafe in this Port, and an Inſtance of the Mercies of the Almighty, without whoſe Permiſſion not a Hair of Man ſhall periſh."

On Saturday ſe'nnight was found dead in her Bed (as ſuppoſed) thro' want of common Neceſſaries, Mrs. Hina Ruſſel, Relict of ——Ruſſel, Eſq; of Lincoln's Inn. She was Daughter of ——Crawley, Eſq; of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Grand-daughter to Lord Viſcount Fitzwilliams of Merion, being a Couſin-german half removed to the late Lord of that Name, and very cloſely allied in Blood to many illuſtrious Perſonages of this Kingdom, but not half ſo ennobled by Birth as by conſpicuous and heroic Virtue; ſhe patiently receiving from the greater part of her Relations, a Denial of the very common Scraps a Beggar claims, and is uſually thrown to the Dogs. She died neglected, without a ſecond Sheet, a ſecond Shift, a ſecond Gown or Handkerchief, having pledged a Handkerchief a few Days before for one Shilling, of which Sum Five Half-pence remained. As ſhe had lived many Years in extreme Poverty, preſerving ſtill the Gentlewoman, ſo ſhe died in the 77th Year of her Age, reſpected by God's ſpecial Friends, the Poor, and was buried by them at St. Pancras, in a decent Manner.

The Weſt Country Barges have begun to work, the Floods having ſubſided in the Thames up the Country.

B O S T O N, April 23.

Laſt Thurſday Night we had here a ſevere Storm of Wind and Rain, at which Time the Tide roſe higher than has been known for ſeveral Years, and has done much Damage, by waſhing away large Quantities of Wood and Lumber from off the Wharffs, and entering the lower Part of divers Stores, and deſtroying Sugar, Salt, and Flour, and other Things, to a conſiderable Value.

We hear that great Damage has alſo been done by the above Storm in ſeveral of the neighbouring Sea Port Towns, particularly at Plymouth, where it is ſaid the Loſs ſuſtained thereby amounts to between 3 and 4000 l. Sterling.

Extract of a Letter from Charleſtown, in S. Carolina, March 20.

"The Creek Indians having ſuſpended Hoſtilities, many People flatter themſelves, that the Meaſures taken in that Affair have had the deſired Effect, and that thoſe Indians begin to be ſenſible of their Folly in quarrelling with their beſt Friends."

N E W - Y O R K, April 30.

On Tueſday Night laſt arrived an Expreſs to his Excellency General Gage, with Advices from Detroit, the Particulars of which have not yet been communicated.——We learn from private Hands, that on the 25th of laſt Month, the Indians, poſted near Detroit, had ſuddenly deſtroyed their Huts, removed their Women, Children and Effects, called their Warriors together, ſome ſay to the Number of 2000, and were marched off; [illegible] their Rout and Deſigns were unknown, ſome ſuppoſed they were gone to the carrying-Place [illegible] Niagara, to cut off our Communication, others that they intended to beſiege Detroit, which is well provided with all Neceſſaries for its Defence, and therefore is in no immediate Danger.

We hear from Elizabeth Town, that Alderman Stites was ſtill alive Wedneſday Morning laſt, many Shot had been extracted, and there were ſome Hopes of his Recovery.

P H I L A D E L P H I A, May 3.

Extract of a Letter from Stanton, in Auguſta County, Virginia, March 30, 1764.

"The People of theſe Parts are very much alarmed at ſome late Incurſions of the Indians in the Weſtern Part of this County. On the 20th Inſtant a Number of them came to the Houſe of one David Cloyd (a wealthy Planter, living on ſome of the Waters of James River, not far from Looney's Ferry) and killed one of his Sons, tomahawked his Wife, plundered his Houſe, and took away above Seven Hundred Pounds in Caſh, beſides ſundry valuable Effects. Mrs. Cloyd, notwithſtanding ſhe is an ancient Woman, and was very much hacked and mangled, is recovered, and ſays, the Number of Indians was ten. Mr. Cloyd, and one of his Sons, were then in this Town, it being Court Time, and moſt of the Family from home. It is remarkable, that this Houſe is a good Way within the Settlements, and yet the Enemy found Means to convey themſelves undiſcovered. But it is ſaid that ſome other Families are miſſing, which it is ſuppoſed they carried off in their Return.

"P. S. Juſt as I had finiſhed writing this Account, there came Advice, that a Party of White-men purſued and came up with ſome of the Indians, killed one of them, and recovered One Hundred and Fifty Pounds of the Caſh, all the heavy Baggage, and four Negroes, whom they had Priſoners."

In another Letter from the ſame Place, dated the 18th of April, it is ſaid, that on the Saturday before, a Woman, and three Children, were carried off by the Enemy from the Calf Paſture, about 20 Miles from Stanton, which is the neareſt to that Town of any Damage done this or the laſt War.

By Letters from Carliſle, received ſince our laſt, we learn, that the Troops which went to eſcort a Quantity of Proviſions to Fort Pitt, were returned, having accompliſhed that Service, without ſeeing an Indian, either going or coming back: That the Garriſon of that Place were all in good Health, and high Spirits, being well provided with all Neceſſaries, and not under any Apprehenſions from the Savages: But that on the 21ſt ult. in the Afternoon, one John M'Lelland, who had formerly lived at Juniata, and being then there, diſcovered a Party of Indians, which he reckoned to be not leſs than Thirty, and ſaw two or three of them lay down their Budgets, deſigning, as he apprehended, to purſue him, upon which he made the beſt of his Way off, and eſcaped: And that there there were three other Men out in theſe Parts, who ſaw the Tracks of the Enemy, ſuppoſed them to be about Forty, and ſeemed to be directing their Courſe towards Carliſle.—That upon this Information Colonel Armſtrong ordered Captain Lindſay, with a ſtrong Party, to range in the Valleys, and endeavour to fall in with the Indians, while other Parties were employed in ranging along the Foot of the Mountain; ſo that it was thought ſcarcely probable the Savages could get in among the Inhabitants, without meeting with our Men: But that many of the People, however, near the Foot of the Mountain, had moved lower down; and that the Diſtreſs and Confuſion this Party occaſioned on the Frontiers, at this Seaſon, was very great, as they were about putting in their Spring Crops.

AFTER the Breaking up of the Store in this Place, which belonged to Meſſieurs JAMES BOND and COMPANY, all Perſons indebted to the ſaid Company, were deſired to diſcharge their Debts, or ſettle by Bond; but as moſt of them have paid little Regard to the Notice given them there, and ſome have been ſo unreaſonable as to refuſe to give their Bonds, notwithſtanding this Manner of Settlement was propoſed with a View of making Payments more eaſy, by waiting till ſuch Time as they could get their Tobacco ready, or more conveniently raiſe the Money: I muſt now inform theſe People, that they need not expect any further Indulgence, for he who aſſiſted for ſome Time in that Store (and who is now impowered to collect the Debts due to the Company) has Orders to commence Suits againſt ſuch as will not ſettle to his Satisfaction, and to have Recourſe to Means of Compulſion, when thoſe of Mildneſs will not anſwer.
